St. Arnold Jensen & St. Joseph Freinademetz

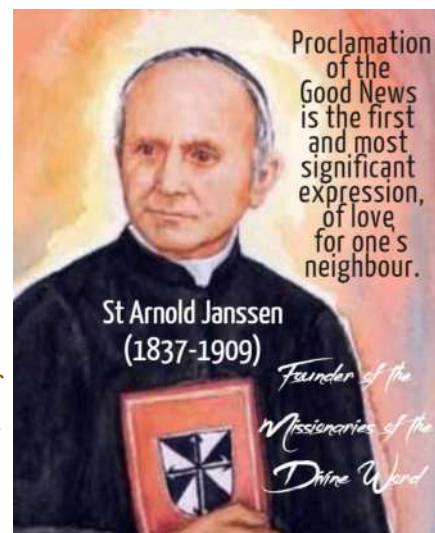

A little bit about the founders of the Congregation of the Divine Word on their Canonization Day and the Congregation's Feast Day: Oct. 5th
Un poco de la historia de los fundadores de la Congregación El Verbo Divino en el Día de su Canonización y Día del Verbo Divino: Octubre 5

St. Joseph Freinademetz learned how to discover the greatness and beauty of Chinese culture and to love deeply the people to whom he had been sent. He dedicated his life to proclaiming the gospel message of God's love for all peoples, and to embodying this love in the formation of Chinese Christian communities. He animated these communities to open themselves in solidarity with the surrounding inhabitants. And he encouraged many of the Chinese Christians to be missionaries to their own people as catechists, religious, nuns and priests. His life was an expression of his motto: "The language that all people understand is that of love."

San Joseph Freinademetz aprendió a descubrir la grandeza y la belleza de la cultura china y a amar profundamente al pueblo al que había sido enviado. Dedicó su vida a proclamar el mensaje evangélico del amor de Dios por todos los pueblos y a encarnar este amor en la formación de comunidades cristianas chinas. Animó a estas comunidades a abrirse en solidaridad con los habitantes de los alrededores. Y animó a muchos de los cristianos chinos a ser misioneros entre su propio pueblo como catequistas, religiosos, monjas y sacerdotes. Su vida fue una expresión de su lema: «El lenguaje que todos los pueblos entienden es el del amor».

Little by little he became more aware of the spiritual needs of people beyond the limits of his own diocese, developing a deep concern for the universal mission of the church. He decided to dedicate his life to awaking in the German church its missionary responsibility. Arnold inaugurated the mission house on September 8, 1875 in Steyl, Holland, and thus began the Divine Word Missionaries. Already on March 2, 1879 the first two missionaries set out for China. One of these was Joseph Freinademetz. Aware of the importance of publications for attracting vocations and funding, Arnold started a printing press just four months after the inauguration of the house. Thousands of generous lay persons contributed their time and effort to mission animation in German-speaking countries by helping to distribute the magazines from Steyl. From the beginning the new congregation developed as a community of both priests and Brothers. Arnold died on January 15, 1909. His life was filled with a constant search for God's will, a great confidence in divine providence, and hard work. That his work has been blessed is evident in the subsequent growth of the communities he founded: more than 6,000 Divine Word Missionaries are active in 63 countries, more than 3,800 missionary Servants of the Holy Spirit, and more than 400 Servants of the Holy Spirit of Perpetual Adoration.

Poco a poco se fue haciendo más consciente de las necesidades espirituales de las personas más allá de los límites de su propia diócesis, desarrollando una profunda preocupación por la misión universal de la Iglesia. Decidió dedicar su vida a despertar en la Iglesia alemana su responsabilidad misionera. Arnold inauguró la casa misionera el 8 de septiembre de 1875 en Steyl, Holanda, y así comenzó la Congregación del Verbo Divino. Ya el 2 de marzo de 1879, los dos primeros misioneros partieron hacia China. Uno de ellos era José Freinademetz. Consciente de la importancia de las publicaciones para atraer vocaciones y fondos, Arnold puso en marcha una imprenta solo cuatro meses después de la inauguración de la casa. Miles de generosos laicos contribuyeron con su tiempo y esfuerzo a la animación misionera en los países de habla alemana, ayudando a distribuir las revistas desde Steyl. Desde el principio, la nueva congregación se desarrolló como una comunidad de sacerdotes y hermanos. Arnold murió el 15 de enero de 1909. Su vida estuvo llena de una búsqueda constante de la voluntad de Dios, una gran confianza en la divina providencia y un arduo trabajo. Que su trabajo ha sido bendecido es evidente en el crecimiento posterior de las comunidades que fundó: más de 6.000 Misioneros del Verbo Divino están activos en 63 países, más de 3.800 misioneros Siervos del Espíritu Santo y más de 400 Siervas del Espíritu Santo de la Adoración Perpetua.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A priest friend of mine received a call from a family whose elderly mother was dying. Within thirty minutes, he was at her bedside, offering the consolation of the sacraments, anointing her with the oil of the sick, and commending her soul to God. She passed not long after, and for months, her family spoke of their deep gratitude for his presence. When I phoned him to commend his faithful ministry, he simply said, "I was just doing my job."

His words brought to mind Jesus' teaching this week in Luke 17:10: "So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, 'We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.'" In a world that often seeks recognition and applause, the Lord invites us into a different mindset — one of humble service. The priest did not see his response as extraordinary; he saw it as a grace to fulfill his vocation.

How tempting it is to seek affirmation for doing what I ought to do! Yet Jesus reminds us that true discipleship is not about grandstanding but about quiet faithfulness. It is enough to have served. It is enough to have loved. It is enough to be grateful that we were given the chance to do our duty in the first place. Whether in priesthood, parenthood, or any vocation, what peace-soaked freedom there is in simply doing what is asked of us. No more, no less. Jesus, that is how you quietly love us.

— Father John Muir
